BOOK REVIEW: Streams of Living Water by Richard Foster

Celebrating the great traditions of the Christian faith. It gives insight into why our own and others stance in outworking their Christian faith is different – that they are being faithful to their calling and themselves even when its not the same as we would see it. It's all part of Gods great creative diversity and each has a valid role. More info about the book on church website. Audrey Gray

Eco Tip

Having a Spring Clean? Tip 2: Embrace Lemons!

Harness the power of lemons to add freshness to your cleaning routine. Cut a lemon in half and use it to scrub and deodorise cutting boards, faucets, and stovetops. The natural acidity of lemons helps break down grease and leaves behind a pleasant citrus scent. They're also great at helping to clean the inside of a microwave.

Anniversary:

Do you drive? Could you offer someone a lift to church?

We are aware that there are some folk who would like to come to church but are unable to due to mobility issues.

Therefore we are compiling a list of drivers who would be willing to help out from time to time. If that is something you could offer - please get in touch with Rev Phil.

Cliff College Festival: 24th to 27th May

Situated between Baslow and Calver, Cliff College puts on a Christian festival each year with “Spirit-filled worship, Bible teaching and activities for people and families of all ages”. Accommodation is available on site or you can be a day visitor instead.

For more info, go to their website or speak with Rev Phil (who goes every year!)
