Ashdon Toombs lives in Ashbourne and is currently exploring a call to ordained ministry. As part of that process he will be joining us in our Benefice for a few months and will be taking part in various services and events during that time.

When you see Ash, please do welcome him and have a chat. He's looking forward to spending time here and getting to know us.

Eco Tip

Plant Some Flowers

Flowers provide resources for pollinators, like bees. We rely on these insects for agricultural production. About 35% of the world's crops depend on pollinators to reproduce. Along with helping the environment, flowers increase your curb appeal!

BOOK REVIEW: Seeking Allah, Finding Jesus

For those who like reading autobiographies this is a fascinating account of one mans journey from Islam to Christianity giving insights into both Islam and Christianity to the reader and echoing the journey of many young Moslems who are leaving Islam and becoming Christians in these days at great cost to themselves. This book will appeal to many in the church, especially some of the men. It's not a difficult read but is very interesting and enlightening.

Review by Audrey Gray.

Rev Phil Michell will be off duty from Sunday 28th July to Tue 13th Aug incl.

He will then be on sabbatical from 16th August to 15th November.
